

The University of South Dakota
Petition for an Exception to Board of Regents Policy 2:4:
Enrolling in a Graduate Course for the Third Time

Per BOR Policy 2:4, students are allowed to enroll in a graduate course (courses numbered 500 and above) no more than two times. If you wish to enroll in a graduate course for a third time, you must petition the Dean of the Graduate School for permission to enroll.

After you have obtained your advisor's signature, return the completed petition to the Graduate School office. You will be notified of the outcome of your petition by e-mail. If the petition is approved, you will be registered by the Registrar's Office in one of the sections listed, on a space available basis.

I wish to petition for approval to enroll in _____ (course prefix and number) a third time. My enrollment history in this course (available in WebAdvisor) is:

	Semester Enrolled	Grade Earned
First attempt	_____	_____
Second attempt	_____	_____

I understand that, in order to enroll in the course a third time, I must meet one of the conditions listed below. With this petition, I have included an explanation of the strategies I will use to improve my academic performance in this course.

I am requesting permission to enroll in this course a third time because:

_____ I passed the course with a grade of "D" or higher the last time I enrolled in it. I am requesting permission to re-enroll in the course because I want to earn a higher grade in the course.

_____ Extenuating circumstances interfered with my ability to successfully complete the course the last time I was enrolled. Therefore, I wish to re-enroll in the course.

The extenuating circumstances, which interfered with my ability to successfully complete the course the last time I enrolled in it, are:
